Souvenir T-Shirt

I think the traditional souvenir
t-shirt
prevents us from living more fully in the Here and Now, and helps reinforce the notion that we are in some way separate from the world around us.

The traditional souvenir
is representative of a place that's anywhere else other than Here, only ever telling a story of a time that isn't Now*.

This is a visualization of ongoing attempts to live more fully in the Here and Now.

Whenever I want to take a piece of the environment with me, I instead remind myself that I am a piece of the environment, myself.
